

Assertive Communication Workshop for Women Faculty

Thursday, May 3rd, 12:00-3:30 in the CBC Special Events Room

12:00-1:00 Networking Lunch

1:00-2:15 Negotiation Skills Session

Negotiation is a critical and regular part of everyday life in professional and personal spheres. This interactive session will focus on how or when to negotiate some common situations such as establishing authorship credit, working with colleagues and graduate students, and responding to requests concerning teaching or service.

2:30-3:30 Creating a Positive Image Session

This session will emphasize skills such as proactively responding to criticism, giving and receiving praise, and creating and maintaining a positive image of yourself in the workplace.

Facilitated by

Dr. Suzanna Rose, Executive Director, School for Integrated Science and Humanity

Dr. Asia Eaton, Research Scientist, Psychology and Women's Studies

PLEASE REGISTER HERE

Sponsored by the School of Integrated Science and Humanity and FIU's NSF ADVANCE Grant

Florida International University
School of Integrated Science and Humanity
Modesto A. Maidique Campus | 11200 SW 8th Street | DM 445
Miami, FL 33199 | 305-348-4232 | sish.fiu.edu